A new season

We are delighted to welcome and introduce Amy as our Service Delivery Manager for the Survivor Support Hub. We are also delighted to welcome Adrian Edwards as a trustee and David Calfo as Chair of the Board. These significant changes will help prepare us for the adventure ahead and equip us to continue to develop our charity.

Introducing Amy Buchan-Symons

We are delighted to welcome Amy to our team and are looking forward to supporting her as she manages and develops the service we offer through the Survivor Support Hub.

Amy has been supporting survivors of human trafficking and modern slavery through charities since 2018. Her passion to support survivors started when she was a teenager, and she would attend events and conferences in London with her mother.

From 2018 to 2019 Amy completed 2 internships - one with Stop the Traffik and a second with The Sophie Hayes Foundation. Working for The Sophie Hayes Foundation she supported the delivery of workshops on employment to survivors in London. In 2019 she began work with Hestia, who provide the statutory support to survivors who have entered the National Referral Mechanism. There she had the privilege of working with dozens of survivors from varied backgrounds and each with unique stories and support needs.

In her free time Amy likes to sing and dance, bake vegan cakes and deserts, play board games and is particularly fond of visiting arcades.

Giving the easy way!

ASIOX is where it is today thanks to the generosity of so many of you in a variety of different ways, including giving of your time and energy, expertise and skills, and with financial support. As we continue this adventure we will be focusing on ways to raise funds, in order that we can keep moving forward.

We have recently set up an easy way to give on our website, via Wonderful www.asiox.org/donate

Also, you can support ASIOX when you shop online, including your food shopping, as many companies will make a donation to us when you buy from them. It is easy to set up and won't cost you a penny! www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/asiox/

If you would like to set up a regular donation by way of a standing order, please get in touch and we will provide you with our bank details.

The Big Give

Could you be a pledger?

We need to secure pledges from our supporters so that we can be considered for the Big Give Christmas Campaign 2024.

Pledgers provide 50% of the matched funding, TBG Champions provide the other 50%.

Pledges would be paid in December after the campaign. If you would like to know more, please email Sue at sbrockes-smith@asiox.org
